

Creative Writing Prompts for Kids

Once there was an old man who lived at the end of a dead end road. He was a very nice man, but everyone called him Mr. Bones. One day, my dog ran away to his backyard...

One day I woke up and realized I had special powers. First, my dog started talking to me. Then, the birds outside started telling me about the weather. Next,.....

I was sitting next to my Mom on the train when suddenly, the scenery changed to a majestic forest. A family of bears appeared next to the tracks. One started growling, and then....

One day I was riding my horse when we came to an abandoned cottage. To my surprise, it was empty! Soon, we were coming back every day and slowly fixing up the

I was outside playing on the swings when it started raining. Suddenly, I could taste something sweet on my lips. It was raining orange juice! Everything was starting to turn orange...

We were on a journey to the jungle when we got separated from our parents. So we decided to build some treehouses and drink out of hollow coconuts. All of the sudden, we heard this strange crash...

There was one kid in class who was mean to everyone. He was a bully. One day, while walking into school I noticed he was crying. Should I talk to him? As I got closer, I noticed that he....

Tina, Sarah, and Kate were dressed up for their Christmas concert. Suddenly, they all realized they couldn't speak! A spell had been cast on them by an evil witch. Then they noticed a shiny tiara in their dressing room. Perhaps, this would be the key....

I was digging through the pantry when a voice came from the back of the shelf. "Help me! Help me!" I noticed the soup can was moving. I picked it up and rubbed the side. Suddenly, a genie appeared!.....

We were sitting by the campfire when suddenly, fireflies gathered around us... At first I thought they were fire sparks, but the fireflies were changing colors! Just then, a strange wind came over us...